DUWIB Newsletter #5

Good morning members!

We hope everyone's had a brilliant week and are feeling fully settled into university as we come to the term's halfway point. Later today we will be hosting our exciting Newton x DUWIB Problem-Solving Workshop and Networking Event (with free cocktails and snacks!) and then on Thursday is our DUWIB x DUCFS x DUFFS Networking Event, so there's a lot to look forward to!

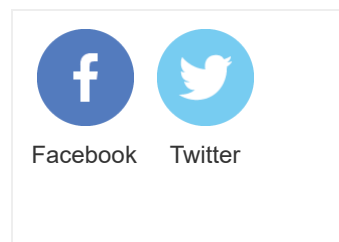

This past week we've had a number of amazing events, including our AmplifyME x DUFFS x DUWIB event and our long-awaited DUWIB Mentorship Scheme Launch. It was lovely to see so many of you and we hope you had a great time.

Don't forget to follow our socials in the sidebar to stay updated on our latest news and events.

Event Recaps: AmplifyME x DUFS x DUWIB Event & DUWIB Mentorship Scheme Launch

Our AmplifyME x DUFS x DUWIB Event was a great way to find out more about different finance roles using the Finance Accelerator Simulation, with lots of information also available about major banks.

Later in the week at our DUWIB Mentorship Launch Event it was fantastic to see so many of you in person! There were some really insightful talks from mentors and members of the Accenture team (who kindly sponsored the event), along with delicious afternoon tea snacks. We hope everyone had a lovely time!

This week we're recommending our members to read Goldman Sachs' report titled 'Womonomics: COVID-19's Impact on Goldman Sachs 10,000 Women and 10,000 Small Business Alumni', available here. This report aims to raise awareness and provide support to women entrepreneurs during the pandemic. If this sounds interesting, make sure to check out Goldman Sachs 1,000 Women's free online courses, available here, which range from focusing on Leadership to Busniess.

We hope everyone has a great week ahead!

Best,
DUWIB
